

Matthew 22 Study Guide

In the Old Testament, Exodus 12, the Passover lamb was to be examined for five days to determine if there was any flaw that would disqualify the lamb as a sacrifice. The day the examination of the lambs was to begin was the 10th day of Nisan. It was on that very day that Jesus entered Jerusalem on the donkey presenting himself to the Jewish people as the Messiah King. Was he qualified?

READ. What was the first test the religious leaders put him to? _____

Jesus gave a clever answer, but his answer also revealed something about Jesus that qualified him as the Messiah King, the Son of God. Think and write what you think Jesus' answer revealed about him. Think about the test Solomon passed in 1 Kings 3.

What was the second test the religious leaders put to Jesus? _____

As in the first, Jesus' answer reveals something about Jesus that qualified him as the Messiah King, the Son of God. Think and write what you think Jesus' answer revealed. Think about the test David passed in 1 Samuel 17.

What was the third test the religious leaders put to Jesus? _____

As in the first two, Jesus' answer reveals something about Jesus that qualified him as the Messiah, the Son of God. Think and write what you think Jesus' answer revealed. Think about Moses' words in Deuteronomy 6 and Jesus' words about the law in Matthew 5.
